DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 23-49 are allowed.

Examiner Statement of Reason for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The most relevant references, the Uppaluru and Gupta references are as discussed in the final office action mailed on May 10, 2010.

Uppaluru and Gupta fail to disclose a voice controlled transaction service adapted to process transactions on mobile devices over the internet:

wherein the advertising subsystem is further configured for ordering potential advertisements based on an ordering ratio consisting of:
a numerator consisting of a percentage of days that a deliverable advertisement has been delivered to the required amount of days advertisements must be delivered according to said deliverable advertisement's advertising campaign details minus a percentage of advertisements actually delivered to the required number of advertisements that must be delivered according to said deliverable advertisement's advertising campaign details; and a denominator consisting of a number of days equal to the length of said contract minus the number of days since said campaign start date;

wherein deliverable advertisements having a higher ratio are delivered before deliverable advertisements having a lower ratio; wherein the advertising subsystem is further configured for delivering advertisements via said mobile device user interface based on said ordering; and whereby transactions are executed without the user pressing a button, clicking a mouse, or any other manual input to a computing device.

Updated searches revealed no references that disclosed the claimed invention, nor were any secondary references identified which could be reasonable combined with Uppaluru and Gupta

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
